This agreement on this _____ of _____, 2013 by Wendy Brodhead, and _____ (client).

Client agrees to the following:

Client agrees to pay board in advance by the 5th of each month. In accordance with Kentucky Law * client and any of your guests, invitees and agents do knowingly assume the inherent risks of farm activities and do assume all risks and do generally release the Farm, Wendy Brodhead, Ed Wilder, Shylah Farm LLC. and or any of their agents or employees from any liability of negligence or act of God which results in death, disease or injury to themselves or your horse(s) while boarding, riding or taking lessons, or any other act while on or off the premises.

_____ (initial here verifying your understanding of these rules and regulations)

Client assumes the risk of personal property loss and client at his/her option has the responsibility of providing insurance on the horse, his/her equipment, tack, property, trailer, in case of accident, theft or fire. Client relieves any adjoining property owners from liability. In case of injury to the horse, the farm will make adequate effort to reach the client, but if unable the farm will have the authority to notify a qualified veterinarian. In case of severe injury and it is in the animals best interest to be relieved of suffering and the client can not be reached, the farm will follow the veterinarians instructions. Client agrees, for the health of all horses to follow routine worming (every two months) and vaccinations followed by the farm. Client agrees to give a thirty day advance notice of moving the horse or the client must pay one month board penalty.

Client is responsible for the actions of all your guests, invitees and agents and must have any riding guests sign as assumption of risk and release form prior to mounting any horse on the property and obtain the prior consent of the Farm and tender a Farm Usage Fee of $15 per half day.

Farm Rules are as follows:

Client shall comply with all posted Farm Rules and in the event of breach of any rule, with or without prior notice; Shylah Farm has the right to demand immediate vacancy from the Farm Premises. No refunds are due if the breach of rules resulted in a safety risk to other horses, the Farm or persons thereon. In the event of non-payment of boarding fees, lesson fees, or any non-reimburses expenses in association with your horse including vet care and shots, this agreement may be terminated with ten days notice and the Farm may eject the horse thereafter if no payment is made. In the event of collection, the Farm shall recover all attorney fees, one percent a month interest and collection costs.

_____ (initial here verifying the client's roles, expectations, and farm rules and agree to comply as such)
